Cancellations, Transfers and Refunds

Our cancellation, transfer and refund policy was created to minimize fees and offer our members flexibility while having to factor in cancellation clauses we must honor with our suppliers. For best protection, you should consider including cancellation and interruption coverage as part of the independent travel insurance we suggest you purchase prior to your trip.

Cancellations

Should you need to cancel your trip, the following fees will apply when we receive written notice of your trip cancellation:

Prior to trip start date	Fee
120 or more days	$150
60 to 119 days	50% of total
30 to 59 days	75% of total
0 to 29 days	100% of total

Totals represent total trip costs including any single supplement charges.

We reserve the right to cancel any trip for reasons of force majeure (war, civil or political unrest & other similar conditions outside of our control) or due to inadequate enrollment. In these instances, Argentina Adventure will notify you at least 45 days before the trip start date or, in the case of force majeure, as soon as the event has taken place. You will have the option of selecting another trip with sufficient availability and paying or being refunded any differences in trip costs or can elect a full refund for all costs paid to Argentina Adventure.

Argentina Adventure is not responsible for any additional expenses incurred by members preparing for their trip such as international airfare, clothing and equipment purchased, nor for any other compensation.

Transfers

You may transfer your reservation to another trip within 12 months of your reserved trip without charge if the request is received at least 90 days prior to the trip start date. If the transfer request is received less than 90 days prior to the trip start date, our cancellation fees stated above will apply.

Refunds

As a member on one of our trips you always have the option to not participate in daily activities and to spend time at your own leisure if you wish, but please be aware that Argentina Adventure does not offer partial refunds for any unused portion of your trip including accommodations, flights, activities or other services offered.

Physical Health and Fitness

Our trips are designed for people of reasonably good health and fitness levels. Signing up for a trip that is beyond your physical capacities will only hinder the experience for the group and could potentially harm you. We provide an activity level rating on each of our trips along with definitions for our rating system. Please make sure you are comfortable with your trip's activity level as the trip leader reserves the right to retain you during any portion of the trip if he or she feels that your participation will jeopardize yourself or the group.

Changes to Itineraries

Although we will do our best to keep the itinerary scheduled, it is subject to change in cases of weather necessities, flight cancellations, delays and other factors beyond our control that may affect the group's safety or significantly diminish your ability to enjoy the activity. In the event of an itinerary change, we will select accommodations and activities comparable to those of the originally scheduled itinerary.
